Hebrews 11:1-6

Hebrews: The God Who Speaks
“Faith That Pleases God”

INTRODUCTION

1. RESPONDING TO GOD

2. WALKING WITH GOD

3. FAITH’S OBJECT

4. FAITH’S PURSUIT

For personal reflection and use in small groups.

1. What would you expect to see in the life of a person that genuinely wants to please God?
2. What does it mean to “earnestly seek God?” What does that look like?
3. What does it mean to be rewarded by God or commended by God? Do we seek God for rewards? What is the reward Hebrews 11 talks about then?
4. What is the key point meant for us to see from Abel’s faith?
5. What is the key point meant for us to see from Enoch’s faith?
6. In the case of Eric Liddell the Olympic runner. How did his running translate into “honoring God?”
7. Do you buy the idea that walking with Jesus as the disciples did; walking with the physical Jesus, is the same or similar as our walk with the resurrected Jesus? Why? Why not?
8. What does it mean to “abide with Jesus?” See John 15:1-8
